

Attract the Right Talent with The Blade Premium Job Ads

With Monster Premium Jobs Ads, you can post once and reach talent wherever it is—on Monster, on social media sites, and across 500+ job and news sites. Stand out from the competition, reach candidates where they engage, and ultimately find the right fit.

Reach more qualified candidates

Get in front of the right people faster with automated, mobile-optimized social job ads.

When posting your job, you'll have access to 2,000+ pre-written job descriptions if you need additional assistance or inspiration.

Tap into a new talent pool

Target both passive and active candidates, wherever they're likely to engage.

Your jobs are automatically sent to candidates who are looking for jobs like yours, via email alerts that are tailored specifically to their interests.

There's no cap on how many candidates can apply to your job while it's live.

Manage your recruiting in one place

Post once and distribute to Monster.com, our mobile app, Military.com, as well as 500+ job and news sites. Access an easy-to-use dashboard to view resumes and manage candidates.

Get better placement in search results

Your ads receive a boost, so they appear more often in search results, giving you a leg up on the competition!

SearchMonster

Put your candidate search into beast mode with Monster's most advanced resume search tool

SearchMonster uses precision search technology to find the exact talent you need. Plus, you can manage and contact candidates via email or text message—all from the same interface. No more toggling from one platform to another. SearchMonster lets you do it all—find and reach the top-quality talent you need, when you need it.

DIG DEEPER WITH PRECISION TECHNOLOGY

You can start your search with broad criteria like job title, level, and location. Then use filters—like education, salary, relocation, citizenship, veteran status, and more—to widen or narrow the results.

SOURCE THE SKILLS YOU NEED MOST

We aggregate candidates' skill set information from various public platforms (GitHub, StackExchange, MeetUp, AboutMe), providing an even more comprehensive view of the applicants, derived from their web profiles.

GO BEYOND THE RESUME

You'll also gain access to candidates' public social profiles (Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, etc.) to see a fuller picture of their professional and personal interests, aggregated from their entire social footprint.

MESSAGE CANDIDATES DIRECTLY

You can connect with candidates right from the platform using text and email tools that are built into SearchMonster's easy-to-use three-panel interface.

GET REWARDED FOR PERFORMANCE

High-quality engagement is rewarded with increased email volume.

TRACK YOUR CAMPAIGNS

Built-in analytics help you analyze the performance of your campaigns and understand candidate behavior.
